

Social Media Intern

Tipik, a Brussels-based communication agency, is looking for a social media intern for our growing team. You will help implement social media strategies designed in-house for our clients in the public and the private sector. Looking to learn on-the-job in a close-knit dynamic team with a growing list of interesting clients? This is the internship for you.

Must haves

- Have a real passion for social media and a drive to turn that into a career
- Be currently studying for a degree or similar in digital communications/communications/digital marketing
- Have excellent written and spoken English and French
- Be a team player

What's in it for you?

- An excellent learning experience in a small but busy team
- The chance to see what life and work is like in a multi-service comms agency
- The opportunity to take real responsibility for work
- A dynamic multi-cultural atmosphere
- This is an unpaid internship, but we do cover travel and meal costs

Is this the internship you need to kick-start your career?
